

Traffic Technical Bulletin

We are working in unison with the City of Sioux Falls on plans that would incorporate a new interchange focused on traffic designated to the Wholestone Farms facility.

Collectively, the City and Wholestone Farms are focused on solutions to minimize traffic congestion. We are confident that the plans will benefit the community.

Please continue to visit this page. We will continue to update information as it comes available.

